Ask Smithsonian. The lads worked like beavers, apparently never giving a thought to the possibility that their own building might catch fire from the flames that were leaping out into the open space.

With so many people crammed onto the fire escape with nowhere to go, it collapsed. In Kheel Center director Richard Strassberg carried the Steuer volumes to the Ithaca campus, where each page was scanned and digitized. On March 25, immigrant garment workers were killed after they were trapped on the upper floors of the Asch Building. One of the female victims was later identified and her body removed to another engaged Russian immigrant, she lived at Watkins Street.
