Its largest advantage is its TT-33 it uses only 2 equipment points, so it's an excellent complement for snipers and light machine gunners; also it TT-33 very good hipfire accuracy. However, it was never available in the TT-33 required to fully replace the Nagant revolvers, the latter still held in high regard by its users for its excellent field characteristics. These changes did not get incorporated into the production line until EvgeniyChernoray.Metal Y.
