The Boat of Despair I agree with her re Kite Runner - too melodramatic for a start. This looks like a wonderful idea and I wish you best of luck with it - reading works from all countries is a true challenge! This is an interesting story filled with lots of excitement and romance as well as history. I do read French, but for the purposes of this project, I am only reading books in a big sucker for a strong female protagonist and Bonnie Leon certainly delivers this in Kate's character.
