The philosophical neurosurgeon soon encounters difficulties when localising the abstract concepts of mind and soul within the tangible gram organ containing billion neurones. As a result the uniqueness, irreplaceability and spirituality of the human person is rooted in the creating and empowering action of God. Mens Sana Monogr. TheFreepress.Y,ApuzzoM.Locke recognized this problem and alluded to something called the understandingwhich looked at the inscriptions on the white paper and carried out the recognizing, reflecting, and associating.
